Headed to Ukarumpa, Papua New Guinea

Greetings friends and family! When Todd earned his degree in management back in 2000 he knew he wanted to be involved in Service more than Corporate Business. That conviction led him to almost eight years managing retail stores for Christian Supply. Now it is leading our family overseas! God has opened up an opportunity for us that we had never imagined, using the skills we already have to partner with Wycliffe Bible Translators.

During Thanksgiving 2008 we listened to Scott and Sarah Carey, Wycliffe missionaries serving in Papua New Guinea (PNG), share about their partnership with Wycliffe. Over the next year we also learned that God had a perfect fit for Todd as a General Store Manager in PNG. He'll be managing a 'mini Fred-Meyer' type store that supports Ukarumpa, a community of 1,000 people from over a dozen countries who are involved in over 50 different translation projects in the surrounding areas.

Cathy will be teaching at the international school where the kids will attend classes.

We can't accomplish what God is directing us toward without a team of people who share our vision. We know God is creating that team for us. You can be involved in sending God's Word to those without it right where you are. Is He leading you to be a part of Bible Translation through prayer or financial support?
